Officers Guide Seniors Through A Great Year

Guiding the class of '81 are officers - President Lance Calhoun, Vice - President Terry Love, and Secretary - Treasurer Claire Dickey. With help from Bob Bendele, principal, and Bruce Cameron, counselor, the seniors have made some important decisions which will help them prepare for the future.

Chosen as the FHA's Homecoming queen nominee, Claire waits anxiously for the festivities to begin.

Terry's cunning eye will never let you know what his next thought will be.

Sheila and Rod Chosen As Best All-Around

Sheila's outstanding school spirit gets the crowd ready for a Friday night game.

After much coaxing and teasing, giving blood was a lot easier than Lance thought it would be.

Among other things, sports are a big part of Rod's school activities, always putting forth his best effort in everything he does.

Seniors of 1981 Are No. 1

According to Angie, the best part of class is when the bell rings.

Juan looks as if his thoughts are somewhere else besides the classroom; maybe he's thinking about who shot JR.

The Best Of Times

Larry looks as if he's concentrating more on the homecoming game against Bracketville than he is on the night pep rally.

EVERYWHERE WE GO
PEOPLE WANT TO KNOW WHO WE ARE
SO WE TELL THEM
WE ARE THE SENIORS
MIGHTY MIGHTY
SENIORS !!

Senior presence is everywhere, including the hall decorations.

If looks could talk, there is no telling what Rod would be saying.

Mary's sense of humor keeps everyone laughing, including herself.

Could this undecided group of seniors be thinking about their future?

Claire seems to have forgotten her lines during the puppet show performed for the kindergarten during speech class.

It takes strong determination and lots of work to build a pyramid, just as it does to build a senior class.

Right: As he gets down on his guitar, Alex really played his part well on FHA dress-up day.

If it is to be,
It is up to me

Right: Counting in his head, Bruce is figuring out how many invitations to order for graduation.

As one of the office aides, Kelly is picking up absentee slips from each class. This and many other jobs keep the aides on their toes.

Easy going ways and warm friendships made Carol and Craig the "Best Personality" choices.

Tina seems happy not only because she's a senior but also because the hostages from Iran were released.

CLASS MOTTO:
Don't follow where a path leads.
Go where there is no path
And leave a trail.

Left: Patches in her normal clothes—no whiskers, no tail, no ears, no painted nose.

Debra & Lance Selected as Most Athletic

Just as Mt. St. Helen's did, Terry is erupting with class spirit to help the seniors move ahead during the FHA Christmas party.

Being a high school cheerleader for three years, Brenda is proud to represent the cheerleaders and pep squad as their homecoming nominees.

Succeeding is superior to being.

Being active in many sports and showing outstanding ability, Debra and Lance were recognized as "Most Athletic."

Because of her quick wit and extremely friendly smile, Marilyn was chosen by the FFA to represent them at homecoming. She was also chosen as the Chapter Sweetheart during April also.

Highest Scholastic Achievers

Representing the band as their nominee in the Homecoming Queen's contest, Janice was honored that they wanted her to represent the organization.

Janice has been a twirler for three years. Her practice helped her to be one of the most outstanding performers at Blanco High.

Janice Flugrath is the Valedictorian

Janice was born in Austin, where she lived for 5 years. Her family then moved to Ft. Worth for 4 years. She and her family moved to Blanco when she was in the 4th grade, and she has been living here for 9 years.

Janice has two younger sisters—Pam who is a junior this year, and Laurie who is in the 8th grade. She also has two older brothers who are married. Her father is a chemist and her mother is a homemaker.

Janice enjoys the outdoors, jogging, tennis, swimming, and playing the piano. She also likes to cook and sew.

She is a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church where she is an organist. She has been a twirler for 3 years and head twirler 2 years. Her favorite subjects this year have been geometry and English.

Janice plans to attend Baylor University and major in Business Administration.

Chosen by their classmates as "Most likely to Succeed," Bruce and Clare hope they can achieve their goals in life. They are both planning to attend college to continue on the path upward.

Bruce started playing the trumpet while he was in elementary. He was first chair for five years straight, starting his 8th grade year.

Bruce was born in San Antonio, where he lived for eight years. He moved to Blanco and began attending school here in the 4th grade.

His father is a farmer and rancher and his mother is a homemaker. He has no brothers or sisters.

Bruce enjoys spending his time reading, cooking, swimming, playing the piano, and listening to music. He has been active in band, going to Area one year. Bruce also participated in U.I.L. poetry reading for two years and making Regional one year. In typing, he made second place in district.

He plans to attend the University of Texas in Austin and study petroleum business and accounting.

Bruce Granberg is the Salutatorian

On FHA dress-up day for all the classes, Billy lived his fantasy of being a guitar player in a punk-rock band.

Life is a Journey, Not a Destination

English IV really divides the kids from the adults. Penny learned what the technicalities of English were all about, and what they had to do with all of us.

Susan and Larry Are Most Friendly

Above: As Kenny is measured for his cap, he realizes that graduation is not as far off as he thought.

Left: Larry Cole and Susan Trisch represent the two "Most Friendly" in the class because of their warm smiles and genuine concern.

Accept Your Limitations Then Go Beyond Them

Right: Discussing the successful mission of the space shuttle "Columbia," Jeff assures the class that he wouldn't be caught dead in space.

Wendy comes to school with a chipper smile, ready to start the day off right.

Destiny Is Not To Be Waited For;
It is to be achieved

Cheering the Panther team on to victory, Trina shows her spirit at the Friday afternoon pep rallies.

Jeff seems to be thinking seriously about graduation as he is measured for his cap and gown.

Hiding atop the car, Susan—drill team homecoming nominee—waits to greet the crowd.

Seniors Put Themselves In the Middle of Fun

on the Holiday Inn in Houston, the senior class of '88 pauses for a quick click before venturing off across sen to Astroworld.

Having as much fun as the rest of the group are
 Mrs. Brooks, Mrs.
 Mabry, "Big Bob," and
 "Baseball Bruce."

Trina's acting as doorkeeper for the passengers, looking reluctant to leave.

Claire looks all set for the long bus ride,
 with her magazine
 and signature dog to keep her busy.

Rounding up the rest of the group, this bunch is eager to begin the evening of fun filled events.

Kenny is threatening to push Rod into the swimming pool, but Rod's hanging tight because he'll only get wet by his own will.

Senior Trip---A Fun Time to Be Together

Right: Dancing by the bridge, Danny Graves and his date enjoy the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

The music provided by the band "Southern Pacific," kept everyone dancing all night. Their variety of music was appreciated.

Seniors Enjoy Stroll Through "Garden of Eden"

Ag Teacher Cyril Wolf and his wife get down to the music at the prom.

Under the gazebo, everyone delighted in the fabulous food—ham and cheese rolls, cheesecake, punch, fruits of all descriptions, ham balls, cheese dip, homemade bread, a block of cheddar cheese, smoked turkey, marinated steak, a relish tray, nuts, mints, etc. This was truly a "Garden of Eden" in food and decoration. The juniors did another fine job.

Dancing with his date, Senior Jeff Smith really enjoyed the good music provided by the band—country and western, rock, disco, and even some old favorites.

Jr. Sponsor Janet Mabry kept her feet busy before and during the prom to make it a great success.

Pulling for their class at the end of a rope, Mickie and Deborah help use their strength to win against the senior girls in the first round at the FFA-FFA Christmas party.

Roland, shown here at a pep rally, was a valuable asset to the Panther squad and proud to be a member of the Junior class.

Dedicated. . . .

Right: Nancy and Clint were selected as the Junior class favorites because of their engaging smiles, outgoing personalities and the work they put in for their class and B.H.S.

Most of the money spent on the prom came from the money raised during the Junior class Mexican dinner. The prom was up among the clouds during the preparation for the prom.

To Being Better

In order to put together a well developed paper, Juniors had to do a great deal of research.

Above: To raise money for the PTO Spring Fling, the juniors built a miniature golf course. Here, Chris is having to improvise for a putter during the golf course construction.

At the project show, Allen Lieck constantly looks at the judge and hopes his lamb will be picked as the winner.

Expressions on the Sophomore's faces show that they put up a great fight in the FHA-FFA Christmas party tug-of-war.

Michael Cooley and James Brockway, vote for their next President at the mock election held by the CHAT STAFF. Reagan was the student's choice as was our county and nation.

On most Monday mornings in English II, the sophomores work on their vocabulary lesson books. To increase word power, Lester Coldway keeps his mind open and his nose to the grindstone.

It takes concentration for "southpaw" Jimmy Klepac to get his work done in English II.

Freshmen 4 Year Trip To The Top

Tina Stauffer enjoys showing Kindergartener William Grant the techniques of making and baking cookies. This was a project of the Homemaking I class.

Karen Jonas, Darlene Penshorn, and other freshmen girls are trying to win in the tug-a-war at the FFA-FFA Christmas party.

TENNIS----- An All-Around Sport For Every Age

This year's tennis team had a rather successful season against their competitors—Hays, Burnet, Canyon, and Dripping Springs. With the players coming back next year, the team ought to be strong.

The new tennis courts will be an asset to the team for more practice. These courts were built in cooperation with the county, the Army Reserve, our Ag boys, the school, and many townspeople. We hope the team will get better and better with every step they take in the years ahead.

Holly's long practices and hard work paid off in the end when she won 2nd place in the District meet in Kerrville and advanced to Regional. However, she was defeated in the 1st round 1-6,5-7 by Gunnado.

On The Road To Improving

Running the 800 meter dash is Junior Janice Faurie. Her fastest time was 3:12.

GIRLS' TRACK 1981

The girls' track team worked very hard this year. Senior Angie Cervantes ran the mile run. Juniors Olga Sanchez and Janice Faurie ran the 800 meter dash, along with Sophomore Lydia Cervantes. Janice also high jumped. Sophomores Becky Neuman and Sandra Jones, along with Freshmen Carolyn Dechert and Marilyn Dechert, participated in the 400 meter and 800 meter relays. Becky also ran the 100 meter hurdles, while Sandra ran the 200 meter dash. Carolyn was involved in the long jump and the 100 meter dash, also. Freshmen Linda Upshaw and Lea Twidwell threw the shot put and discus. Lea also jumped in high jump. Marilyn, in addition to her relays and the 200 meter dash, participated in the triple jump.

Although none of the girls make it to the Regional meet, Coach Terri Wagner is proud of her first year with the girls and of the effort they have put into their track season.

Left: Sophomore Sandra Jones "on her mark," is ready to run the 200 meter dash as Coach Terri Wagner times her. Sandra's fastest time this year was 30.0.

Left: Three of the long distance runners include Senior Angie Cervantes, Junior Olga Sanchez, and Sophomore Lydia Cervantes. Angie's fastest time in the 1600 meter dash was 6:50; Olga's was 3:06 in the 800 meter dash; and Lydia had a time of 3:09 in the 800 meter dash.

Right: Placing 1st in the 2-mile run with a 10:54 at the District track meet in Medina. Freshman Mario Sanchez was able to go to the Regional meet in Victoria. Coach Hope was very proud that he placed 6th there.

BOYS' TRACK: Striving for High Goals

Left: Mark(left) was the alternate for the mile and sprint relays at the Regional meet. Charles, Clint, Robert, and Greg won the mile and sprint relays at District, entitling them to participate at Regional. They placed well but not enough to go to the state meet.

"When the going gets tough, the tough get going." This could be the 1981 Boys' Track Team motto. Their track season went exceptionally well. The hard work and dedication paid off, because the sprint and mile-relay guys—Charles Richardson, Clint Riley, Robert Jones, Greg Scott, and Mark Upshaw(alternate)—lead the team to the Regional track meet in Victoria with two second places at the District meet.

Robert Jones also participated in the long jump after taking a 2nd at District, while Mario Sanchez was involved in the 2-mile run, which he also took a 2nd place in. Mario also set the 2-mile record for Blanco High School.

This is Robert's second year to win the long jump at District. This year he won with a jump of 20'0". He made a fine jump at Regional, but the competition is always tough there.

Baseball ——— Past Time Americana

Not normally in outfield, Senior Catcher Larry Cole warms up before a game.

Couch Wayne Walters' coaching ability kept our guys up all season and playing with spirit.

Being an outstanding center fielder, Senior Lance Calhoun was named to the all district team. His speciality was catching deep fly balls.

Sophomore Russell Fishbeck was the hitter that was wanted when the bases were loaded. His great hitting ability and being a dependable first baseman got him elected to the all district team.

All District Pitcher Charles Richardson, could pitch a "mean" curve and hit the long ball.

Delbert Brockway, school maintenance man, was always there to take money from the paying fans.

Blanco' 1980-81 Drama Club had a membership of approximately 60 students. Mrs. Mabry is the Drama Club sponsor and director of the U.I.L. play.

The Drama Club's activities consisted of attending four plays in San Antonio. They were "Carousel," "Miracle Worker," "Our Town," and "My Fair Lady." At these productions, the club learns by looking at college actors perform. This gives them a true appreciation for drama, and a desire to make their drama better.

The members participated in two productions—"The Nutcracker" performed at Christmas time and "The Outcasts of Poker Flats" for U.I.L. competition. The opportunity to be involved in these plays give the members insight into the creative world of drama.

After many long hours of practicing the waltz, Keri Brown and Bart Barry glide across the floor with ease. They were more nervous about the dancing than remembering their lines.

Drama Club Attends Four Productions

Sean Conley completely reverses his personality to do a spectacular performance as the ornery critter in "The Outcasts of Poker Flats."

"Clara"—Wendy Stuffer—listens closely as her uncle tells her about this special nutcracker.

Blooming with talent, Laurie Flugrath portrayed a daisy in "The Nutcracker," her first appearance in a school play.

"The Outcasts of Poker Flats" were going to be saved by Andy Cox (Wheeler), but he found all of them dead except Mike Berger (Tom Simpson) and Sean Conley (Uncle Billy).

Lanae Riba received honorable mention while Mike Berger and Bert Barry (right) were awarded all star cast for their performance in the U.I.L. play "The Outcasts of Poker Flats."

Lea Twidwell showed what a rat she could be while portraying "the mouse king" in the Christmas play. She was happy this picture caught her with the crown on because in one scene, it was forgotten in the confusion behind stage.

Panther Band---- Looking fine,

Above left: For 6 years, Jeff has played with spirit and concentration. The trumpet section will miss Jeff, Janice, and Bruce next year.

Above right: Director Martin Goodman has to constantly keep his eye on the programs going on and his ear in tune to the music so he can get the band playing on the correct cue.

Music helps make any event special. The music supplied by our band gives that "touch of class" to any function whether it be a football game, parade, or holiday. It raises spirits and gives a festive atmosphere to everyone.

2's seem to be the band's number this year, receiving seconds in all three contest—marching, concert, and sight reading. The band is trying each year to better itself, hopefully moving up to sweepstakes again by getting a "1" in each contest division.

The band has had 2 money making projects—fish fry and community birthday calendars. With money from these projects, the band and band boosters hope to raise enough for 1/2 the cost of new uniforms for next year.

From among senior members, the band selects Mr. and Miss Panther Band, the two people who best represent a spirited, hard-working band member. This year's choice is Peggy Heckel and Bruce Granberg, both 6 year veterans.

Our band in their formal uniforms makes a fine looking group of musicians.

Right: In the homecoming parade, the band leads the entire procession from school, downtown, and back to school.

Sounding good

Leading the band on the field and in parades are Drum Major Kennan Moore (back middle), Twirler Holly Waxler (left), Head Twirler Janice Flugrath, Twirler Penny Lux, and Twirler Gayla Didway.

Band Member's Music Make A Happening Seem Even Better

Right: Debra, a senior band member, is an outstanding flute player.

Left: Janice has been head twirler for 2 of her 3 year as majorette giving outstanding performances at the pep rallies and games.

Practice makes a band an asset to the school. Practice often seems monotonous, but as in any activity, practice is a must.

The band officers are: President Bruce Granberg (right front), Treasurer Sharon Lindeman, Equipment Manager Leighton Tatum, Librarian Kevin Wright, Vice President John Behnright (back), Secretary Debra Jones, Reporter-Historian Vicky Coffee, and Equipment Manager Gordon Dowdy.

Having a party for students enable everybody, including the members of the council, to have a good time.

Being the council advisor helps keep Bob Bendele, our principal, in touch with students and their feelings not only at school but after hours also.

The "Southern Pacific" band provided not only "pop" but country and western music for the Christmas dances.

At the Christmas dance, Steve and Patty enjoyed being a part of the group having fun with dancing and "rapping."

A student council member makes sure all is right when they have a function. Nancy is inspecting the sandwiches for a party.

Being almost a school tradition this year, the "Southern Pacific" is used not only by the student council, but other organizations also.

Right: Susan and Lance do a good job handling the selling of ads for the yearbook and PANTHER CHAT.

Janice, Terry, and Bill Spurgin (advisor) layout the paper and yearbook.

Working hard on the yearbook to make sure everyone is included in his class section are: Teresa (top), Cindy, Kennan, Peggy, Claire, Jo (bottom), and Sabra.

Members of the Journalism class work on both the annual and CHAT staff throughout the year. For the CHAT, the monthly newspaper, the class is divided into groups of 3 reporters. Each group is responsible for at least one article a month in the paper.

The yearbook is also divided into sections and members are assigned by the advisor to complete the pages by certain deadlines. This requires that they gather information, check on who is to be in the picture, and see that the picture is taken. Lots of planning and thought must go into a section to make it informative and interesting.

Below are the names and duties of the students who are assigned a section of the yearbook: Peggy Heckel and Claire Dickey-seniors; Kennan Moore-juniors; Cindy Townsley-sophomores; Sabra Barker-freshmen; Jo Dowdy-elementary and Jr.-Sr. prom; Rod Culton-elementary and baseball; Tina Ford-annual staff and homecoming; Kenny Morgan-student council; Alex Hicks-band; Penny Nolte-pep squad; Carol Houser-drill team; Wendy Stauffer-drama club; Marilyn Klepac-FHA and FFA; Craig

Staying on top of Panther sport activities are: Craig, Sheila, Trina, Janice, and Rod.

Carol (bottom), Penny, Wendy (top), Tina, Alex, and Kenny gather information about each school organization.

Yearbook And Paper Staff Are Always Working To Keep Production Cost Low

Banks-high school football; Sheila West-high school basketball; Trina Shipp-tennis; Janice Faurie-track and volleyball; Terry Love-jr. high sports; Teresa Wagner-administration and faculty; and Susan Triesch and Lance Calhoun-ads.

To save the student body and advertisers money, the staff is doing the printing and layout work before it is sent to the publisher. This puts a different duty on the staff, but keeping the yearbook within the price of all is their object.

Right: The 1980-81 sponsor has great interest in his job and in his kids. Cyril Wolf has accomplished great things for the F.F.A.ers.

Future Farmers Of America

As Bart Jones can tell you, showing pigs takes patience and endurance because they are not as co-operative as some of the other show animals.

The 1980-81 F.F.A. officers are (standing) Reporter Russell Fishbeck, Treasurer Sammy Nixon, Secretary Janet Dechert, (seated) Vice-President Vance Jones, President Melodie Kneupper, and (kneeling) Sentinel Gordon Dowdy.

Debra Wolf and Kathy Tamayo (right) realize the tension at shows when the judge is looking over their rabbits.

Training a steer to lead is the responsibility of a good FFA member if he wants to win top prizes at their shows. Sammy Nixon's ability has won him many awards.

To get his feet in the right position for the judge, Deborah Reul uses a show stick to help control her steer.

Perry Kuebel and William Hostetler hope these goats will stay steady while the man is judging them for the quality of their wool.

Carol Summy keeps the FHA moving in the right direction. She is a good advisor, always reminding, helping, guiding, and keeping the group working toward its stated goals.

Future Homemakers of America

Bart and Lucille are trying not to "mess-up" in the lifesaver pass. A "passer" cannot jiggle, laugh, or poke his partner if he wants his class to win.

Lynn Williams was happy she was able to play Santa when the organization visited the nursing homes at Christmas. Being remembered at such a special time makes the residents happy.

Pulling together was the goal for these juniors at the Christmas party. It is also a goal for FHA members when planning their objectives for the year.

Because of his zest for life, Mr. Alfred Foehler (right) of Blanco Mill Nursing home is a joy to the FHA members when they visit the local nursing homes. FHAers learn life is fuller when you make others happy.

Building a pyramid helps these sophomores build not only strength and coordination, but also character. The FHA sponsored Christmas party strengthens class bonds and character.

School Board, Our Policymakers

Mrs. Pat Immel has been President of the board for 3 years and a member for 5 years. She directs our drill team, in addition to managing her home and working with her husband in their business.

Serving his 5th year on the board, Charles Jones is secretary for this school year.

Kenny Moore is Vice President of the board having served for 4 years. He is an avid reader, family man, and presently studying at a seminary extension facility in San Antonio.

In his 4th year of service, Dorsey Smith has a plumbing business and active family life.

On the board for 12 years, horticulturist Bob Klepac spends his time running his family and business successfully.

John L. Dechert is one of the best barbequers in the community, always lending his time and ability. His family and ranch work keep the other part of his life busy. He is in his 5th year of service.

A 3 year veteran, Joe B. Wagner keeps busy with farming, ranching, and working at a wholesale petroleum company.

Superintendent And Chief Executive Officer

Joy Brussel is the secretary and assessor-collector for the school district. She is in her 17th year of service.

Lenora Felps is in her 5th year of assisting Mr. Brussel with office duties.

High School Principal

Directing high school students and faculty, Bob Bendele's degrees come from Howard Payne and SWTSU. He is also our senior sponsor and in his 4th year of service to Blanco.

Ruth Harvey keeps attendance records and assists both principals as secretary. She is in her 15th year of service.

Phyllis Owen is in her 1st year of service as elementary principal. Her degrees come from Arizona State and NTSU.

Elementary Principal

Keeping our school running efficiently, smoothly, and effectively is the goal of our administrators. Their purpose is to provide the correct environment for students to be educated which includes overseeing the facilities, personnel, and students themselves.

In his fifth year as superintendent is Bobby L. Roberts with degrees from SWTSU. As the chief executive of our school, he works with the school board and principals to provide the best surroundings possible for the educational process.

An open heated, great man,

His print shop machines,

His helpful workers.

Without the use of

His machines and helpful workers,

This yearbook would cost

MUCH MORE.

Robbie

Forever in our hearts

Robbie Riley was an original a person as was his nickname, "Cumby." It was obvious to everyone that he loved life and searched for things to add to it. There have been people who have lived for 90 years who did not live as much as Robbie did in his 18. His car accident ended his physical life, but not our remembrance of his spiritual life.

Horace Robert Riley, III was a faithful Panther for 8 years. Those years were packed with participation in sports and school organizations. He was also the self-appointed greeter to new students.

He excelled in baseball, which was his favorite sport, and was selected as Most Valuable Player last year. He was also an important part of the Panther football squad. His long arms and legs seemed to carry him as far as he could possibly go toward the goal line.

Robbie's life touched everyone who knew him. To many people, Robbie was also a very valuable friend. Because of his smile and his outgoing personality, he was voted "Most Friendly" by his classmates his senior year. When he smiled you could also sense his eyes smiling even behind his shades.

Janet Mabry said, "I could get on Robbie like everyone else, but he would say, 'It's cool,' and I just had to smile and couldn't get frustrated at him for very long."

"It ain't cool if the chrome don't shine," was what he always said in reference to keeping his car spotless. He really loved a "cool" set of wheels.

Robbie's absence from our lives will make a difference, but memories of the good times will keep him alive in all of our hearts. He was a spreader of love. We can learn from his example, because none of us have the promise of tomorrow.
